

How to make healthy food choices

Your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) can help

Healthy eating isn't about strict diets or fads. A few small changes — like eating more fruits and vegetables, less sugar and smaller portions — can give you more energy and improve your overall health. Your Employee Assistance Program (EAP) can help you make healthy lifestyle changes. Log in to our website this month to read these featured articles. They're under the Monthly Promotion tab in the Centers section:

- Tips for healthy eating
- Good eating habits and your child
- Keep an eye on portion size
- Healthy eating starts with healthy food shopping
